THANK YOU:

We don't mean to write an epistle, but there are so many thoughts that we need to share. Firstly, thank you so much for the tremendous outpouring of love & support for our family this last week. Almost immediately, texts & phone calls started coming in from folks wanting to know what we needed them to do. Then the food started arriving; we honestly ate for a week on what was brought to the house. The beautiful cards started coming next, with sincere expressions of love & sympathy. The wonderful church ladies fed us dinner on Thursday afternoon & it was delicious & plentiful. Our cousin from Tennessee commented on how good the food was & we told him that our church was really, really good at two things: praying & feeding you. He said he could definitely attest to one of those!

When we arrived for the service, there were all these gorgeous plants & flower arrangements, in addition to the ones delivered to the house. The service was absolutely all we could have wished it to be. The comments made by Mike, Lyndal, Edison & Hamilton were truly from the heart and captured "Pa" perfectly. (Someone commented that, when you can choke up four preachers, you've done something.) The funeral director said, "That was the most amazing service I have ever heard. As I was listening, I was thinking 'I wish I could have known that man!'". Roy's poem was very touching & the singing was heavenly. Of course, Jeff & Diana's tribute was spot on, but Jeff has known him all his life & Diana most of hers.

All the hugs & prayers just rounded out the "love circle" & we truly appreciate anything anyone did/said/prayed for us. Please keep us in your prayers as we adjust to our new normal.

Love you all! The Hinton Family

THANK YOU:

My church family, Thank you so much for your sweet Valentines cards. I appreciate all the prayers, phone calls and expressions of love and concern. I am recovering well and feeling a little better. Love, Katie Dunlap
