March 6—April 24

Grief does not have to be the end of joy. Loss can leave you overwhelmed and alone, struggling to keep your head above water in a raging sea of grief. But grief and loss do not have to suck the life out of you.

- Get meaningful tools to help you heal
- Find support from others who have been there
- Gain confidence as you live forward

THANK YOU

- To our church family... A big "thank you" (though it seems so inadequate) for all the prayers, support, food, & hugs during the past year. 2022 was a hard one, but God & you have brought us through. The meal train after surgery was welcomed & all the meals were delicious. We love our church family! Thanks again, & hugs for everyone! Betty Hinton, Glenda Hicks, Sue, Allan & Marcia Lane
- Thank you for the beautiful Valentine cards delivered to us by Lyndal & Loretta and for the ones received through the mail. The words of encouragement & blessings brightened our days. Thank you for being a loving, Christian example of a congregation! Love, Phillip & Emily Cooley
- A big thank you to those who keep in touch with me often and the Valentines I received in the mail were very uplifting. These small gestures mean so much and these are just some of the things that make MoSt the absolute best church ever. Doris Bridges
- Missouri Street Church of Christ... Thank you for the Valentines cards! They are beautiful! Made my day!! God bless you, Love, Glenda Currie

CONGRATULATIONS

Spencer Miller, Jr. & Parker Busby were married on Valentine's Day!

Spencer & Parker moved the following day to Wilmington, NC where Parker will be a nurse at New Hanover Regional Hospital and Spencer will be completing his teaching degree at UNC Wilmington.

Please pray for Spencer and Parker as they start their life together!
